MISSION STREET CHURCH

CAMARILLO, CA

Pastor for Young Adult and College Ministry (PYACM)

(www.missionstreetchurch.com).

July 6, 2015

Mission Street Church: Mission Street began on Oct. 26, 2014, with the singular goal of helping; "Dechurched people become fully devoted followers of Jesus Christ."

Mission Street Church is an Evangelical church, a member of the Presbytery of Santa Barbara and the Presbyterian Church (USA).

Ministry Context: Mission Street Church, located in the nearly perfect weather milieu (av. 77 degrees) of the Gold Coast of California (30 minutes from Malibu, 20 minutes from Ventura, 40 minutes from Santa Barbara and 1 hour north of LAX), also happens to reside in the county (Ventura) of the second highest population of un-churched people in California. It is estimated that around 75,000 people in Camarillo alone are de-churched or un-churched.

The population base of Camarillo is the growing home of two expanding age segments: Seniors – those 65 and older, and Millenials – those 35 and younger. Over-half of those who attend Mission Street on a Sunday morning are either in college or are young adults.

Surrounding Colleges and Universities: Cal State Channel Islands (5 minutes away), Cal Lutheran University (20 minutes away), Oxnard College (10 minutes away), Moorpark College (20 minutes away), Ventura College (20 minutes away), Pepperdine University (30 minutes away). Cal State Channel Islands is set to grow from 5,000 students to 15,000 students in the next 5 years.
